<sup>1</sup> AFROTC Detachment interviews applicants to determine if they meet AFROTC eligibility requirements/standards and informs applicants of AFROTC requirements. After the interview, AFROTC forwards an assessment to the JAG Corps by the 1 February application deadline indicating applicant will/will not be accepted as a cadet if selected for JAG Corps (please call 1-800-JAG-USAF for fax, email, or mailing address).

<sup>2</sup> Applicants submit JAG Corps application packet to the SJA at the time of the interview; the base legal office forwards it to the selection board by the 1 February application deadline.

<sup>3</sup> AFROTC Detachment contacts Cadet Actions to schedule GLP cadets for extended field training. As determined by the Detachment and Cadet Actions personnel, GLP cadets may attend extended field training either between the first/second year of law school or between the second/third year of law school. Cadets complete AS100 and AS200, followed by regular field training during six week extended field training at Maxwell AFB, AL.

<sup>6</sup> GLP cadets may report to base assignment before attending nine week Judge Advocate Staff Officer Course at Maxwell AFB, AL.
